

American democracy
itself is under attack in ways that Osama Bin Laden
could never have imagined, or managed
himself.

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of inappropriate and
illegal use of public airwaves for
partisan use.
Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. And they demand, in the name of democracy
and the US Constitution, that
the FCC immediately
step in and prevent this travesty before it airs. It is your American duty
to maintain decency
and decorum in our
airwaves.
